Curriculum Approval Workflow

Department — Creates & Recommends a Proposal → College — Reviews & Recommends →

- GRADUATE
- UNDERGRADUATE
- CORE

General Education Committee — Reviews & Recommends

University Curriculum Committee — Reviews & Recommends

Graduate Council — Reviews & Recommends

Academic Affairs — Reviews & Recommends

President — Reviews & Recommends to USG

Educational Assessment & Policy Committee (EAPC) — Curriculum Assessment/Policy Issues for Routing / Vote

University Senate
Vote: Curriculum Assessment/Policy Issues
Information Items: Other

General Education Committee (GEC)-Elected

1 member from:
- College of Arts & Sciences
- College of Business
- College of Health Sciences
- College of Education
- University Library
- Liberal Arts Council*
- GC Rep. to BOR Gen Ed Committee (if available)*
- University Registrar*

A teaching representative from each area of the core must be represented. The Liberal Arts Council representative must be a faculty member. One member of the GEC must also be a member of the UCC.

*Ex-Officio

University Curriculum Committee (UCC)-Elected

College of Arts & Sciences
- 2 Members (Humanities & Social Sciences)
- 2 members (Science & Mathematics)
- 2 members (Fine & Performing Arts)

College of Business
- 2 members

College of Health Sciences
- 2 members

College of Education
- 2 members

Library
- 1 member

University Senate
- 1 member*

Ex Officio
- SACSCOC Liaison
- Senior Associate Provost
- Registrar
- Academic Affairs Administrative Assistant

*must be an elected faculty senator

University Curriculum Committee Charge

1. Review new courses, course modifications, concentrations, deletions and reactivation of courses (as information items).

2. Review and recommend/not recommend new undergraduate and graduate degrees, certificates, and minor program proposals.

3. Review and recommend/not recommend the deactivation and termination of undergraduate and graduate degrees, certificates, and minor program proposals.

4. Collaborates with EAPC and makes recommendations on curriculum policy, subject to approval by a vote of elected university faculty members.