DEGREE PROGRAM and CURRICULUM CHANGES PROPOSAL COVER SHEET

PROPOSAL: : To deactivate the current Bachelor of Art/French Major Degree due to the fact a new combined language degree has been implemented
COLLEGE: The College of Art & Sciences	DEPARTMENT: World Language and Cultures
DEGREE: Bachelors of Art	CIP CODE:
MAJOR: French	MINOR:
CONCENTRATION NAME: French Major	PROPOSED EFFECTIVE DATE: (semester/year) : 7/2017
Description and Rationale for Recommended Action (attach additional pages if needed, this description will be shared at all levels in the University, and the University System and SACS Offices): The Department of World Languages and Cultures has taken the necessary steps to combine the Spanish Major and French Major into a new single degree to provide students with a solid liberal arts education as the foundation for personal and professional growth over a lifetime. The new degree is designed to provide students with well-developed cognitive and communication skills and with a broad knowledge base that will enable them to pursue additional studies at the graduate level or to enter the job market in positions that demand the ability to communicate effectively, to reason critically, and to solve problems successfully, in more than one language and in a variety of cultural contexts. It was unanimously voted by the departmental faculty during a departmental meeting on February 17, 2017 to deactivate the Bachelors of Art/French Major degree.

DEGREE AND/OR MAJOR DEACTIVATION FORM

Institution: Georgia College and State University

The College of Arts and Sciences

Date Submitted: April 25, 2017

Deactivation Effective Date: July 1, 2017

Degree Title and CIP Code: Bachelors of Art/ French Major

Rationale:

(Note: Include a brief description of the reason the institution and department have made the decision to deactivate the program).

The Department of World Languages and Cultures has taken the necessary steps to combine the Spanish Major and French Major into a new degree to provide students with a solid liberal arts education as the foundation for personal and professional growth over a lifetime. The new degree is designed to provide students with well-developed cognitive and communication skills and with a broad knowledge base that will enable them to pursue additional studies at the graduate level or to enter the job market in positions that demand the ability to communicate effectively, to reason critically, and to solve problems successfully, in more than one language and in a variety of cultural contexts.

It was unanimously voted by the departmental faculty during a departmental meeting on February 17, 2017 to deactivate the Bachelors of Art/French Major degree.
